Enjoy this spectacle where creativity runs wild and cheaters never prosper. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to enter the race as the event is much more thrilling and light-hearted than it is competitive. It will be a great KICK-OFF to Halloween Fun! (Road between Best Buy and The Park Center)

Join the cool band of kids and adults playing by the rules, competing fair and square.

Some will win their race using a combination of scientific mastery, others with a powerful combination of creativity and ingenuity.

A few will win with that magic touch on their side. Win or lose, all will have the time of their lives
